

IWD 2012

Come celebrate the achievements of women in the past and help us inspire the activists of today and tomorrow!

Vancouver & District
Labour Council

1330-12not-kc-iwd 2012 poster/km

Celebrating Women: International Women's Day 2012 at W2

The B.C. Federation of Labour and the Vancouver & District Labour Council invite women to a family friendly celebration of the 101st International Women's Day. Children and men are welcome, and it's free to attend.

The W2 Atrium will be packed with information tables, face painters, performers, and much more. In addition, films by and about women will be shown.

Please join us at the W2 Atrium at 111 West Hastings St, Vancouver
* Transit by Skytrain, Seabus, and Bus Routes.

March 10, 2012
2:00–5:00 pm

Possible films include the following National FilmBoard classics:

* Not a Love Story (1981)
68 Minutes – the first major exposé of the porn industry
By Bonnie Sher Klein

* The Company of Strangers (1990)
100 minutes – about a group of elderly women who share life stories while awaiting a ride after their bus breaks down