

Licensed Practical Nurses WE'RE DOING MORE FOR BETTER NURSING CARE

From the hospital bedside to the long-term care home, there's a good chance that your nurse is a Licensed Practical Nurse.

That's because LPNs are taking on more responsibilities in every area of your health care.

Today is LPN Day and we're saluting the contribution these skilled nursing professionals are making to better health care for British Columbians.

www.heu.org

LPN DAY • May 13, 2006