HEU radio ads on air beginning December 27th.

HEU members work in every area of health care.

And in a province-wide radio ad campaign on-air starting December 27, HEU talks about the varied and essential roles its members play delivering care to British Columbians.

Bargaining for 40,000 HEU members begins in early 2006, and the union says it's important to find solutions at the bargaining table that make health care better -- for everyone.

On air starting December 27, 2005.
