ARTICLE 1 - PURPOSE OF AGREEMENT

1.01 The purpose of this agreement is to set forth terms and conditions of employment affecting employees covered by the agreement. The parties agree to foster and promote an environment free from harassment.

Encourage the practice and procedures of collective bargaining between Employer and the Union as the freely chosen representative of our employees.

Encourage the cooperative participation between the Employer and the Union in resolving workplace issues, adapt to changes in the economy, develop workforce skills and develop a workforce and a workplace that promotes productivity.

1.02 Human Rights Code

a) The Employer and the Union subscribe to the principles of the Human Rights Code of British Columbia.

b) The employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any employee for reason of membership or activity in the Union.

1.03 Procedure for Filing Complaints

- The Union and the Employer recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free from harassment, including sexual harassment.
- An employee who wishes to pursue a concern arising from an alleged harassment may register a complaint in writing with the Employer or through the Union to the Employer designate.
- If a complaint is registered, it shall be handled in a timely manner in accordance with the Company’s harassment policies.
- All persons involved with the complaint shall hold all aspects of the complaint and all related information in the strictest confidence. Failure to do so may result in discipline, up to and including dismissal.

- Unresolved complaints of harassment may be pursued through the grievance procedure initiated after this process has been completed.
- Both the complainant and the alleged harasser shall be entitled to Union representation if they are members of the bargaining unit.

1.04 Respectful Conduct in the Workplace

The parties are committed to promoting a work environment in which all those who enter the workplace will conduct themselves in a civil, respectful, and cooperative manner. A safe environment is important for staff and contributes to providing the highest possible standard of care. Staff should expect to work in, and residents and patients should expect to be treated in an environment where the risk of violence is minimized.

The Employer has policies for promoting and maintaining a working environment in which all persons are treated with respect and dignity. These policies will be accessible to staff and managers regarding expectations and consequences of inappropriate behaviour, aggression and violence.

Individuals who work for the Employer are responsible for conducting themselves in a respectful manner in the workplace and at work-related gatherings. Failure to maintain respectful conduct will lead to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

A Respectful Workplace is characterized by:

a) Polite Behaviour – defined as courteous and considerate behaviour toward others;
b) Inclusion – of people with different backgrounds, cultures, strengths and opinions;
c) Safety – from disrespectful, discriminating, bullying and harassing behaviour;
d) Dispute Resolution Processes – differences will be managed through dispute resolution processes including, but not limited to Article 1.03 of this agreement; and
e) Support – individuals will be supported to learn and practice personal dispute resolution and respectful workplace skills.

1.05 Workplace Bullying
Bullying for the purpose of this Article is any repeated or systemic behaviour which may be either physical, verbal or psychological including shunning, which would be seen by a reasonable person as intending to belittle, intimidate, coerce or isolate another person.

Personal harassment and/or bullying does not include acceptable social banter in the workplace. Nor does it include actions occasioned through the exercise in good faith of management’s rights for bona fide operational requirements or progressive corrective discipline in a manner that is respectful of those involved.

1.06 Inclusion
Inclusion for the purpose of this Article means welcoming people with diverse backgrounds into the workplace. Behaviours include but are not limited to: working to understand cultural differences, working constructively with employees accommodated as a result of the employer’s duty to accommodate and valuing other’s differing styles and contributions.

1.07 Support
Support for the purpose of this Article means coaching, in-service training and/or internal or external expert intervention designed to bring dispute resolution skill and respectful workplace knowledge to the workplace.

1.08 Nothing in the above definitions or any application thereof is intended to reduce, restrict or fetter the Employer’s policies or Employer’s right and ability to manage and or discipline its employees.

ARTICLE 2 - RECOGNITION OF THE UNION

2.01 Sole Bargaining Agency
During the life of this Agreement the Employer recognizes the Union as the sole bargaining agency on behalf of the employees for whom the Union has been certified as bargaining agent with respect to wages, hours of work and terms and conditions of employment.

2.02 Union Shop
(a) All employees covered by the Union's Certificate of Bargaining Authority shall maintain membership in the Union as a condition of employment. Employees who are brought within the jurisdiction of the Union's Certificate of Bargaining Authority, including newly hired employees, shall become members of the Union by the first day of the third bi-weekly pay period after their initial date of employment in the bargaining unit.

(b) Upon receipt by the Employer of written advice from the Union, employees who fail to maintain membership in the Union or the check-off of Union Dues, or an amount equal to Union Dues, shall be terminated by the Employer from their employment.

Where the Employer has knowledge of an employee failing to maintain Union membership, or the check-off of Union Dues, the Employer shall so advise the Union and, in turn, the Union shall advise the employee in writing. When the Employer is advised by the Union of non-compliance of either of the above, the Employer shall terminate the services of the employee within thirty (30) days of written advice as noted above.

In the event an employee is terminated pursuant to this section, the following contract provision shall not be applicable to the employee:

Article 7 – Grievance Procedure

2.03 Union Check-Off

The Employer agrees to the monthly check-off of all Union Dues, Assessments, Initiation Fees and written assignments of amounts equal to Union Dues.

The check-off monies deducted in accordance with the above paragraph shall be remitted to the Union by the employer in a period not to exceed twenty-one (21) days after the date of deduction.

The employer shall provide the Union’s Provincial Office with a list of all employees hired, and all employees who have left the employ of the employer (who shall be designated as terminated and shall include discharges, resignations, retirements and deaths) in the previous month along with a list of all employees in the bargaining unit and their employee status and the amount of dues or equivalent monies currently being deducted for each employee. Such information shall be provided in an electronic format, such as Microsoft Excel and will be provided securely in a fashion mutually agreeable to both Parties.

The employer agrees to sign into the Union all new employees who jobs are covered by the Certificate of Bargaining Authority in accordance with the provisions of Article 2.02.

The employer shall supply each employee, without charge, a receipt (T4) in a form acceptable to Revenue Canada for income tax purposes, which receipt shall record the amount of all deductions paid to the Union by employees during a taxation year.

The receipts shall be mailed or delivered to employees prior to March 1st of the year following each taxation year.
Twice every calendar year (February and August) the Employer shall provide the Secretary-Business Manager of the Union, a list of all employees in the bargaining unit, their job titles, addresses and their telephone numbers known to the Employer. Such information shall be provided in an electronic format, such as Microsoft Excel and will be provided in a fashion agreeable to both Parties to memberupdates@heu.org.

2.04 New Employee Orientation

New employees will be advised that a collective agreement is in place and be provided with the name of their shop steward.

The Chief Shop Steward or designate and the new employee shall be given an opportunity to meet within regular working hours without loss of pay for up to fifteen (15) minutes during the first thirty (30) days of his/her employment.

2.05 Shop Stewards

The Employer agrees to the operation of a Shop Steward system which shall be governed by the following:

(1) Shop Stewards may be appointed by the Union on the basis of two (2) Shop Stewards per worksite for up to twenty-five (25) employees covered by this Agreement, with a maximum number of eight (8) Shop Stewards per worksite.

(2) The Employer is to be kept advised of all Shop Steward appointments.

(3) One (1) Shop Steward or Union Committee member may be appointed by the Union as Chief Shop Steward at each worksite or operational unit, who may present or assist in the presentation of any grievance.

(4) A Shop Steward or Union Committee member shall be permitted to represent an employee's interest without loss of pay when such meetings are scheduled during the Shop Steward's or Union Committee member's hours of work. The Shop Steward or Union Committee Member shall obtain the permission of his/her immediate supervisor or designate, prior to leaving their work duties to undertake their Union responsibilities. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

2.06 Badges and Insignia Employees shall be permitted to wear union pins and shop steward badges.

2.07 Bulletin Boards
The employer shall provide space for an appropriate number of bulletin boards per worksite for the posting of legitimate Union materials as approved for posting by the Steward or his/her alternate.

2.08 Notice of Union Representative Visits
The Union shall inform the Company when any representative of the Union intends to visit the worksite for the purpose of conducting Union business. Such visits will not disrupt employees working without the supervisor/manager’s permission.

ARTICLE 3 – DEFINITIONS
“Common-Law Spouse” means two people who have cohabited as spousal partners for a period of not less than one (1) year.

“Employer” means Compass Group Canada Ltd.

“Worksite” means VCHA/PHC sites serviced. (see Appendix C for list of worksites)

ARTICLE 4 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS
4.01 Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the Union acknowledges that the employer has and retains the exclusive right and responsibility to manage its facilities as it sees fit, including but not limited to the following:

(i) To hire employees and to direct the working forces, including the right to decide the number of employees needed by the employer or required for any task, to organize and assign the work, to schedule shifts, to maintain order, discipline and efficiencies of all operations.

(ii) To make and to alter from time to time rules and regulations to be observed by all employees. The parties agree to discuss rules and regulations at Union/Management meetings.

(iii) To discipline or discharge for proper cause.

4.02 It is expressly understood that all management rights not specifically altered, limited, or eliminated by this Agreement shall remain the rights of the employer.

4.03 This Article will not be used in a discriminatory manner against any person, employee or group of employees (including trade unions or their members) and management rights under this Article shall not be exercised in any way inconsistent with or contrary to any express terms or provisions of this Agreement.

4.04 Managers Excluded from Bargaining Unit Work
Management shall not perform work of the bargaining unit, except for the purposes of training, quality control purposes, occasional rest periods and meal breaks, or in cases of emergency when employees covered by this Agreement are not available, and provided that the performing of such work does not reduce the hours of work of any employee scheduled to work.

ARTICLE 5 - STRIKES, LOCKOUTS, LEGAL PICKET LINES

5.01 No Strikes or Lockouts
During the term of this Agreement, there shall be no strike action by any bargaining unit employee, the Union or any person acting on behalf of the Union, whether or not such strike action has been authorized by the Union; nor shall the employer lock-out bargaining unit employees.

5.02  Legal Picket Line
Refusal to cross or to work behind a picket line that is legally established pursuant to the Labour Relations Code of B.C. shall not constitute cause for discipline or dismissal. An employee who refuses to cross or work behind a picket line pursuant to this Article shall be considered to be absent without pay.

5.03  Force Majeure/Act of God
It is understood that events which result from Act of God, breakdown of operations, strike or labour dispute or for any reason beyond the control of the employer, the provision of proper notice, scheduling and other similarly impacted items in this Agreement will not be complied with.

ARTICLE 6 – UNION/MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE
The parties agree to establish Union/Management committees in the Coastal Health Authority and Providence Health Care, which shall be divided into nine (9) operational units, as listed in Appendix “C”. For each Union/Management committee, membership on the Union committee shall be two (2) employees and may include the Secretary Business Manager of the Union, or his/her representative. The Employer shall have equal representation on the committees.

6.01  Union/Management Meetings
The parties agree to conduct Union/Management meetings three (3) times per calendar year. Exceptionally meetings may occur more frequently in the event there are urgent matters that need to be addressed. In all cases the requesting party shall make every effort to advise the other in writing a minimum of fifteen (15) working days in advance that they are convening a meeting and provide an agenda with a description of the matters to be addressed.
Union/Management meetings will be conducted for the purpose of discussing issues that impact employees at all Vancouver Coastal Health/Providence Health Care work sites. Such meetings may be used to discuss issues, including but not limited to:

a) workload issues;
b) reviewing matters, other than grievances, relating to the maintenance of good relations between the parties;
c) correcting conditions causing misunderstandings;

6.02 Payment for Employees Attending Regional Union/Management Meetings

The time spent by members of the Union Committee in the course of their duties shall be considered as time worked and Committee members shall be compensated at the regular straight time hourly rate. If attendance at the Union/Management Committee meetings requires an employee to travel to a site other than his/her home site, he/she shall be paid the transportation allowance pursuant to Article 24 and any parking costs incurred.

The role of Chairperson for the meetings shall be shared by the Union and the Employer. The Employer shall be responsible for taking and distributing minutes of the meetings.

6.03 Employee Attendance at Staff Meetings

(a) Where an employee is directed by the employer to attend a staff meeting or a committee meeting during his/her working hours, the employee shall be compensated at his/her regular hourly rate for the time spent in attendance at these meetings.
(b) Where an employee is directed by the employer to attend a staff meeting or committee meeting outside of normal working hours, said employee shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The Employer and the Union recognize that the goal of this grievance procedure is to attempt to resolve a grievance at the earliest possible opportunity with the least amount of time and resources.

7.01 Grievance Investigations
A shop steward or Union committee member shall obtain the permission of their immediate supervisor prior to leaving their work duties to undertake Union responsibilities. Such permission will not unreasonably be withheld where operational requirements permit. Paid leave will be granted for:

(a) Investigation of grievances and assisting any employee whom the shop steward represents in presenting a grievance in accordance with this Agreement.
(b) Attending meetings called by management;
(c) Investigation of employee complaints of an urgent nature.

The shop steward or Union committee member agrees to notify his/her supervisor on resuming his/her normal duties.

7.02 Right to Have Steward Present
The employee shall have the right to have Union representation present at any discussion with supervisory personnel where the supervisor intends to interview that employee for disciplinary purposes. The supervisor shall make every effort to notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the meeting in order that the employee may contact a shop steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.

7.03 Grievance Procedure
For the purposes of this Agreement, a grievance is defined as:

(a) A difference arising between the parties relating to the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of the Agreement including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable.
(b) The dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee bound by this agreement. Disciplinary action grievable by the employee shall include written censures, letters of reprimand, and adverse reports or performance evaluation.

7.04 All grievances, with the exception of grievances pertaining to dismissals or lay-offs shall proceed as follows:

Step 1
The employee shall take the difference to their immediate manager or designate with or without a Steward at the employee’s option within seven (7) days from the date the employee knew or reasonably should have known of the incident giving rise to the grievance.

Step 2
Failing settlement at Step 1, the employee, steward or a servicing representative shall within twenty-one (21) days of the event giving rise to the difference, put the grievance in writing, including articles allegedly violated and remedies sought, and meet with the applicable manager or designate and endeavour to settle the matter. The Manager shall respond to the grievance in writing within seven (7) days of the Step 2 meeting.

Step 3
Failing settlement at Step 2, the Union committee shall, within fourteen (14) days of the employer’s response in Step 2, meet with the applicable Manager/Director or designate to discuss the grievance.

At this step of the grievance procedure, each party shall exchange copies of all relevant documentation available to date. The findings or decisions of the Employer/Union shall be presented to the other party in writing within seven (7) days of the meeting. If the grievance is not settled at this step, either party may refer the grievance to arbitration under either Article 7.07 or 7.08 within twenty-eight (28) days of the receipt of the response at Step 3.
The referring party will notify the other party of the selection of the arbitrator prior to assigning the grievance in writing to the arbitrator.

Grievances of a general nature may be initiated by a member of the Union Committee in Step two of the grievance procedure.

7.05 Dismissal or Lay-off Grievance
The following procedure shall be used for any grievance arising from a dismissal or lay-off:

The Joint Committee shall be governed in accordance with the provisions of the Industrial Health and Safety Regulations made pursuant to the Workers Compensation Act. The Joint Committees shall have equal representation with each party appointing its own representatives.

In addition to persons appointed by the parties, either party may involve other employees of the facility who are neither members of the Bargaining Unit or Management, provided such is done by mutual agreement.

40.02 Employees who are members of the Joint Committee shall be granted leave without loss of pay or receive straight time regular wages while attending meetings of the Joint Committee.

40.03 Employees who are members of the Joint Committee shall be granted leave without loss of pay or receive straight time regular wages to participate in workplace inspections and accident investigations at the request of the Joint Committee pursuant to the WCB Industrial Health and Safety Regulations.

40.04 Employees on the Joint Committee shall be reimbursed for all necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by them to attend meetings of the Joint Committees.

40.05 Training and Orientation
The Employer will provide orientation or in-service which is necessary for the safe performance of work, the safe use of equipment, safe techniques for lifting and the safe handling of materials and products. Where appropriate, this training shall include infection prevention and control. The Employer will also make readily available information, manuals and procedures for these purposes.

40.06 Working Alone or in Isolation
The Occupational Health and Safety Committee shall have the mandate to review procedures established by the employer for checking the well-being of employees working alone or in isolation under conditions which present a risk of disabling injury where the employee might not be able to secure assistance in the event of injury. The Committee shall have the right to make recommendations to the employer regarding such procedures.

40.07 Reporting Unsafe Conditions and Refusal of Unsafe Work
The BC Occupational Health and Safety (OH&S) Regulation requires that whenever a person observes what appears to be an unsafe or harmful condition or act, the person must report it as soon as possible to a supervisor or to the Employer, and the person receiving the report must investigate the reported unsafe condition or act and must ensure that any necessary corrective action is taken without delay.

The OH&S Regulation also requires that a person must not carry out or cause to be carried out any work process or operate or cause to be operated any tool, appliance or equipment if that person has reasonable cause to believe that to do so would create an undue hazard to the health and safety of any person.

A worker who refuses to carry out a work process or operate a tool, appliance or equipment must immediately report the circumstances of the unsafe condition to his or her supervisor or employer. Where a worker does so in compliance with the OH&S Regulation, they shall not be subject to disciplinary action.
(The procedure referenced above can be found in Sections 3.12 and 3.13 of the Occupational Health and Safety Regulations, Workers Compensation Act).

ADDENDUM - CASUAL ADDENDUM

1. (a) Casual/relief employees shall be called in to work in the order of their seniority provided that they are registered to work in a job classification applicable to the work required to be performed. A casual/relief employee shall be entitled to register at any worksite within an operational unit for work in any job classification and work area in respect of which such employee meets the requirements of the classification.

   (b) Casual/relief employees who have put in writing their interest to transfer to or be added to a classification registry within another operational unit shall be given the opportunity where:

   (i) they have the required qualifications and meet the requirements of the classification; and

   (ii) the Employer needs more casual/relief employees in that operational unit’s classification registry(s).

   (c) Seniority and service entitlements are not affected and follow the employee to the other operational unit.

   (d) A casual employee who is added to or transfers to another operational unit’s classification registry shall not have the right to make another request under this section for a three (3) month period from the date of transfer.

2. Casual/relief employees shall accumulate seniority on the basis of the number of hours worked. The casual/relief employee will be paid at the rate of pay for the classification in which the casual/relief employee is working once called in.

3. The manner in which casual/relief employees shall be called to work shall be as follows:

   (a) The Employer shall maintain both:

   (i) A master casual/relief seniority list which shall include all casual/relief employees registered by the employer in all worksites listed in descending order of their seniority; and
(ii) A work area or worksite classification registry seniority list for each job classification in which casual relief employees may be used. Each work area or worksite classification registry shall list those casual/relief employees who have been qualified to work in that job classification and are registered in that work area or worksite in descending order of hours worked.

(b) The Employer shall call those casual/relief employees who are registered in the work area or worksite classification registry applicable to the work required to be performed. Each casual/relief employee must provide the Employer with one or two telephone numbers where the employee can be reached. The Employer shall commence the call-in process by calling the most senior employee in the applicable classification registry at the one or two telephone numbers provided by the casual/relief employee. In the event that voicemail, a pager, or an answering machine is reached, the Employer shall leave a message including the date and time of the call. If the employee does not respond to the Employer within three (3) minutes of the call being made, the Employer shall call the next most senior employee in the classification registry.

(c) All calls made by the Employer pursuant to Paragraph (b) shall be recorded in a log book maintained for that purpose. The log will show the name of the casual/relief employee called, the date and time that the call was made, the job required to be performed and its time and date, whether the employee accepts or declines the work or fails to respond to the call, and the signature of the person who made the call. In the event of a dispute, the Union shall have reasonable access to the log book and shall be entitled to make copies of any of its pages.

(d) If the casual/relief employee called fails to answer the call or declines the work assignment, the Employer shall then call the next most senior employee registered in the job classification and this process will be continued until a casual/relief employee is found who is ready, willing and able to perform the work assignment.

(e) A casual/relief employee who accepts a work assignment shall be deemed to have the same obligation to fulfill the work assignment as a regular employee.

4. At the beginning of each month, each casual/relief employee shall provide the Employer with their projected availability for the month. To be eligible to be called for shifts, a casual/relief employee must provide availability for a minimum of six (6) shifts during the month. If a casual/relief employee’s availability changes during a particular month, the casual/relief employee will advise the Employer accordingly; however, if the casual/relief employee wishes to restrict his/her declared availability for that month, the casual/relief employee may only do so twice during the month. A casual/relief employee will make reasonable effort to answer the Employer’s call for work, in accordance with the employee’s stated availability.

5. Based on the casual/relief employee’s availability, if the employee declines a work assignment four (4) times or more in a 6 month period without a bona fide reason, the employee will be removed from the casual/relief list. Employees may also be removed from the casual/relief list for just and proper cause.

6. A casual/relief employee may be removed from the casual/relief list if the casual/relief employee does not work a minimum of ten (10) shifts in a six (6) month period.

7. The casual/relief seniority lists will be revised and updated every three (3) months in February, May, August and November in each year (the “adjustment” dates). The seniority of each employee shall be entered in the work site or work area classification registry(s) in descending order of the most hours worked to the least. Casual employees hired after an adjustment date will be added to the registry or registries in the order that they are hired.
For the purposes of call in to do casual work, any hours accumulated in a current period shall not be reckoned until the next following adjustment date. The Employer shall post the lists at the appropriate worksite(s).

Within two weeks of each adjustment date the employer shall provide to the Secretary Business Manager of the Union a revised copy of the seniority lists.
