HEU COLOURING CONTEST

MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS WEEK COLOURING CONTEST

Win Great Prizes!

(coffee, chocolate and HEU boutique items)

About 20 per cent of Canadians live with mental health problems, mental illness or addiction. Too often, stigma and discrimination keep people from speaking up and getting the support and care they need.

We know the COVID-19 pandemic, heavy workloads, on-the-job stress, bullying, harassment and unsafe work all take a toll on the mental health of workers.

That's why HEU's People with Disabilities Standing Committee is promoting discussion during Mental Health Awareness Week.

Colouring Contest Rules

This contest is open to all HEU members. Each member may submit one coloured picture. Use crayons, watercolours, markers or coloured pencils to colour the picture. All entries must be submitted to the HEU Provincial Office at the email address below.

We'll pick a winner and a runner-up in a random draw. Prizes as awarded. No cash substitutions.
