quarterly to review the expedited arbitration process and scheduling of hearing dates.

10.02 Those grievances agreed to be suitable for expedited arbitration shall be scheduled to be heard on the next available expedited arbitration date. Expedited arbitration dates shall be agreed to by the parties and shall be scheduled monthly or as otherwise mutually agreed to by the parties.

10.03 The location of the hearing is to be agreed to by the parties but will be at a location central to the geographic area in which the dispute arose.

10.04 As the process is intended to be informal, lawyers will not be used to represent either party.

10.05 All presentations are to be short and concise and are to include a comprehensive opening statement. The parties agree to make limited use of authorities during their presentations.

10.06 Prior to rendering a decision, the arbitrator may assist the parties in mediating a resolution to the grievance.

10.11 The parties shall equally share the costs of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator.

10.12 The expedited arbitrators, who shall act as sole arbitrators, shall be mutually agreed.

10.14 It is understood that it is not the intention of either party to appeal a decision of an expedited arbitration proceeding.

10.15 Any suspension for alleged cause that is not dealt with under this Section shall be referred immediately to Article 9 for resolution.

ARTICLE 11 – PROBATION

11.01 For the first four-hundred-and-eighty-seven-point-five (487.5) hours worked or four (4) calendar months, whichever comes first, an employee shall be a probationary employee. By written mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union, the probationary period may be extended by one-hundred-and-fifty (150) hours worked, or one (1) calendar month, whichever comes first, provided written reasons are given for requesting such extension. During the probationary period, a probationary employee may be terminated. If it is shown on behalf of the probationary employee that the termination was not for just and reasonable cause, the employee shall be reinstated.

11.02 Upon completion of the probationary period, the initial date of employment for full-time employees and part-time employees shall be the anniversary date for the purpose of determining perquisites and seniority. For casual employees, the accumulated hours worked since commencement shall be the basis for seniority.

ARTICLE 12 – SENIORITY

12.01 Seniority will be recognized and will accrue based on full-time employee’s and part-time employee’s length of continuous service from their most recent date of hire with the Employer, inclusive of all paid and unpaid leaves.

12.02 Seniority for casual employees will be recognized and will accrue based on accumulated hours worked since their most recent date of hire with the Employer.

For purposes of relating the seniority of a casual employee to the seniority of regular employees for job posting purposes, the seniority date of such employee shall be calculated by:

- (i) dividing their number of seniority hours by a factor of 7.5, which shall be deemed to be the number of days worked; and then
- (ii) taking the number of days worked derived under subsection (1) herein multiplied by a factor of 1.4 rounded off to the nearest whole number, which shall be deemed to be the number of calendar days of employment. The seniority date shall then be calculated by backdating from the applicable date the number of calendar days thus determined.

12.03 In the event that a casual employee is converted to full-time or part-time, or vice versa, their seniority date of hire shall be established based on the equation of 1,825 hours worked being equal to one full year of service.

12.04 The Employer shall provide the Unions with a seniority list for all employees January and July of each year. A copy of the casual employee seniority list shall be provided in January, April, July, and October of each year. Registered Nurses shall be on their own list. It is understood that service with the Armed Forces of Canada in time of war or compulsory military service, or service with the Employer as a supervisory employee does not constitute a break in the continuous service and shall not affect an employee’s accumulation of seniority.

ARTICLE 13 – PROMOTIONS AND TRANSFERS

13.01 Where the Employer intends to fill a vacancy of more than sixty (60) calendar days, in an existing or new classification, the Employer shall post the vacancy to be filled on a secure bulletin board available for viewing by all employees, for a period of seven (7) calendar days and the posting shall include the classification, wage rate, qualifications, scheduled hours of work (including start and stop times) and a brief outline of the position and the closing date for applications.

In the event that the Employer determines that there are no qualified internal applicants for the posted vacancy, then the Employer may proceed to select an external applicant.

The successful applicant will be given an employment letter outlining their status and regular hours of work.

Unless the Union provides notice of objection within sixty (60) days of the Employer’s notice, the classification and wage rate shall be considered to be agreed. Where the Union objects, and the matter cannot be resolved, the wage rate shall be the subject of Arbitration.

15.03 If the wage rate for the new classification is revised as a result of negotiation or arbitration, the revised wage rate will be effective from the date when the new position was established.

17.03 A laid-off employee may bump a junior employee in their Department, or the most junior employee in any Department, provided the laid off employee has more seniority and is willing and qualified and has the ability to do the job of the less senior employee. However, in no circumstances will an employee affect a promotion through a bump. A promotion shall be defined in this section as an increase in basic rate of pay in excess of three (3) percent of the existing basic rate of pay.

17.04 Except in cases of an act of God, fire or flood, the Employer shall give each employee who has acquired seniority and who is to be permanently laid-off, written notice of lay-off, in accordance with the following schedule:

However, when a casual employee who has not completed probation is promoted to a full-time or part-time employee, the employee will be required to serve the probationary period.
5. Casual employees will receive vacation pay as set out in the Article 25 - Vacation. In lieu of Statutory Holidays, casual employees shall be paid five-point-two percent (5.2%) of their straight-time regular wages on each pay in lieu of Statutory Holidays.
6. A regular full-time or part-time employee who is laid off shall be entitled to transfer to casual status. Where a casual employee has not accepted such work for a period longer than three (3) months, the employer and the Union shall meet to discuss the bone fides of the refusal and continued employment of the employee. Where there is no bone fide reason for the refusal of work and a further three (3) months has elapsed without any shifts worked by the employee, the casual employee will be deleted from the casual call in list.

9. In order to facilitate the development of skills and orientation of newly hired casual employees, the Employer may, at its discretion, assign four (4) shifts each month to the new employee, for the first three (3) months of employment, before available shifts are offered to other employees on the casual call-in list.

- (c) In the event of a busy signal, the Employer shall telephone the employee once again after two (2) minutes. If the telephone is still busy, the next employee on the call-in list shall be called.

11. Regular part-time employees may register for casual work. Regular part-time employees will be assigned such casual work in accordance with the following:

procedure.

- (c) Casual assignments arising pursuant to Clause (a) above will be offered to employees on the departmental call-in list in order of seniority.
12. Accumulated sick leave credits may be used by regular part-time employees who become sick during a casual work assignment.
