LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING #2 68

 RE: RATES OF PAY 68

ARTICLE 1 - PURPOSE OF AGREEMENT

1.01 The purpose of this agreement is to set forth terms and conditions of employment affecting employees covered by the agreement. The parties agree to foster and promote an environment free from harassment.

Encourage the practice and procedures of collective bargaining between Employer and the Union as the freely chosen representative of our employees.

Encourage the cooperative participation between the Employer and the Union in resolving workplace issues, adapt to changes in the economy, develop workforce skills and develop a workforce and a workplace that promotes productivity.

1.02 Human Rights Code

- a) The Employer and the Union subscribe to the principles of the Human Rights Code of British Columbia.
- b) The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any employee for reason of membership or activity in the Union.

1.03 Procedure for Filing Complaints

- The Union and the Employer recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free from harassment, including sexual harassment.
- An employee who wishes to pursue a concern arising from an alleged harassment may register a complaint in writing with the Employer or through the Union to the Employer designate.
- If a complaint is registered, it shall be handled in a timely manner in accordance with the Company's harassment policies.
- All persons involved with the complaint shall hold all aspects of the complaint and all related information in the strictest confidence. Failure to do so may result in discipline, up to and including dismissal.

- Unresolved complaints of harassment may be pursued through the grievance procedure initiated after this process has been completed.
- Both the complainant and the alleged harasser shall be entitled to Union representation if they are members of the bargaining unit.

1.04 Respectful Conduct in the Workplace

The parties are committed to promoting a work environment in which all those who enter the workplace will conduct themselves in a civil, respectful, and cooperative manner. A safe environment is important for staff and contributes to providing the highest possible standard of care. Staff should expect to work in, and residents and patients should expect to be treated in an environment where the risk of violence is minimized.

The Employer has policies for promoting and maintaining a working environment in which all persons are treated with respect and dignity. These policies will be accessible to staff and managers regarding expectations and consequences of inappropriate behaviour, aggression and violence.

Individuals who work for the Employer are responsible for conducting themselves in a respectful manner in the workplace and at work-related gatherings. Failure to maintain respectful conduct will lead to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

A Respectful Workplace is characterized by:

- a) Polite Behaviour – defined as courteous and considerate behaviour toward others;
- b) Inclusion – of people with different backgrounds, cultures, strengths and opinions;

- c) Safety – from disrespectful, discriminating, bullying and harassing behaviour;
- d) Dispute Resolution Processes – differences will be managed through dispute resolution processes including, but not limited to Article 1.03 of this agreement; and
- e) Support – individuals will be supported to learn and practice personal dispute resolution and respectful workplace skills.

1.05 Workplace Bullying

Bullying for the purpose of this Article is any repeated or systemic behaviour which may be either physical, verbal or psychological including shunning, which would be seen by a reasonable person as intending to belittle, intimidate, coerce or isolate another person.

Personal harassment and/or bullying does not include acceptable social banter in the workplace. Nor does it include actions occasioned through the exercise in good faith of management's rights for bona fide operational requirements or progressive corrective discipline in a manner that is respectful of those involved.

1.06 Inclusion

Behaviours include but are not limited to: working to understand cultural differences, working constructively with employees accommodated as a result of the Employer's duty to accommodate and valuing other's differing styles and contributions.

ARTICLE 2 - RECOGNITION OF THE UNION

4.04 Managers Excluded from Bargaining Unit Work

Management shall not perform work of the bargaining unit, except for the purposes of training, quality control purposes, occasional rest periods and meal breaks, or in cases of emergency when employees covered by this Agreement are not available, and provided that the performing of such work does not reduce the hours of work of any employee scheduled to work.

ARTICLE 5 - STRIKES, LOCKOUTS, LEGAL PICKET LINES

5.01 No Strikes or Lockouts

During the term of this Agreement, there shall be no strike action by any bargaining unit employee, the Union or any person acting

The purpose of the Labour Management Committee is to promote the cooperative resolution of the workplace issues, to respond and adapt to changes in the economy, to foster the development of work-related skills and to promote workplace productivity. Employees shall receive their basic rate of pay for time spent in attendance at the Labour Management Committee

To assist with the discussion of any outstanding grievances and to comply with the intent of the Grievance Procedure and meet the timelines as outlined in Article 7, a grievance meeting may be scheduled on the same day as the Labour Management Committee meeting.

In order to be entitled to pay sick leave, employees must complete the appropriate form and have it authorized by the immediate supervisor. Failure to meet this requirement will result in the absence being treated as leave without pay. Any abuse of sick leave benefits is cause for discipline, up to and including discharge.

27.02 Sick Leave with pay is only payable because of sickness and employees who are absent from duty because of sickness may be required to prove sickness. The Employer will reimburse employees for any costs incurred, to a maximum of twenty dollars ($20.00) if required by the Employer to prove sickness.

- (c) The provisions of (b) shall also continue to apply to employees who are receiving WCB benefits other than wage-loss benefits pursuant to Sections 29 or 30 (temporary benefits and/or partial temporary benefits) of the Workers Compensation Act, so long as the employee is otherwise entitled to benefits under those Sections of the Workers Compensation Act.

The details of the return to work program will be confirmed in writing to the employee and the Union.

The parties jointly recognize the importance of confidentiality and will ensure that full confidentiality is provided. The Employer shall not have contact with the employee's physician, without the employee's consent.

27.11 Workload

Where the absence of one or more employees would create a significant increase in workload for other employees, the Employer will resolve the matter by:

- Implementing a duty priority list, in consultation with affected employee(s) where time permits;
- Re-assigning work, and/or;
- Utilizing casual employees in accordance with the collective agreement.

An employee who believes any workload situation is excessive shall discuss the problem with the immediate supervisor. If the problem is not resolved in this discussion, the employee may seek a remedy by referring the issue to the Labour-Management Committee for review and recommendations.

27.12 Regular employees transferring to casual status are not entitled to access their sick leave benefits until such time as they may revert to regular status and will lose their banked sick leave credits upon termination of employment if their status is casual status at that time.
