Secretary-Treasurers

Dear Sisters, Brothers and Friends:

Re: Human Rights and the Duty to Accommodate Workshop – November 1 and 2, 2022

In the HEU, stewards often become aware of members who need an accommodation. In order to improve the ability of our stewards to support members and direct them to the appropriate resources, HEU is offering a Human Rights and the Duty to Accommodate workshop. This is a valuable workshop for members who want a deeper knowledge of human rights legislation and how it relates to the duty to accommodate.

This in person two-day workshop will be held on November 1 and 2, 2022 in the Lower Mainland. Specific location will be sent to the attendees.

In the Human Rights and Duty to Accommodate workshop members will:

- Build their knowledge of human rights principles and BC Human Rights Code
- Learn about the duty to accommodate process
- Learn about resources available for members who require an accommodation

Please fill out the attached application form by Thursday, September 29, 2022 to the Provincial Office Attention: Shemaine Chan, Education and Human Rights Department. Please return only ONE copy of the application – either by mail, email to schan@heu.org or fax at 604-739-1510. Alternatively, an online form is available on our website at www.heu.org.

We will contact successful applicants by email to confirm further details. Please ensure the email address on your application is current and is your primary email contact where we will send information regarding the workshop. Please do not use your employer's email address. Once applicants have been notified, they will be required to apply for leave of absence for union business, where applicable.

If you have any questions regarding this workshop please contact Shemaine Chan by phone (604-456-7063) or by email schan@heu.org.

In solidarity,

Meena Brisard
Secretary-Business Manager
