PREAMBLE

The parties to the agreement acknowledge with gratitude that they, and their members, work on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded territory of First Nations who care for and nurture these lands and have from time immemorial.

WHEREAS the right of the sick person to uninterrupted, skillful and efficient care cannot be questioned, and it is obligatory upon the Employer and its employees that efficient operation of the Employer's business be maintained, and to effect this, it is important that harmonious relations be continued between the Employer and its employees;

AND WHEREAS the Union is a trade Union formed by and including certain employees of the Employer;

AND WHEREAS the parties hereto, with the desire and intention of making their relationship more harmonious and profitable, have concluded to make provision herein for the orderly and expeditious consideration and settlement of all matters of collective bargaining and of mutual interest, including wages, hours, working conditions and the adjustment of grievances, with respect to the employees of the Employer for whom the Union has been certified as bargaining agent;

NOW THEREFORE THIS AGREEMENT WITNESSETH that the parties hereto in consideration of the mutual covenants hereinafter contained, agree each with the other as follows:

ARTICLE 1 - RESPECTFUL WORKPLACE

1.01 No Discrimination

- (a) The Employer and the Union subscribe to the principles of the Human Rights Code of British Columbia.
- (b) The Union and the Employer recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free from harassment, including sexual harassment, and the Employer shall take such actions as are necessary with respect to any person employed by the Employer engaging in sexual or other harassment in the workplace.

- (c) The Employer and the Union agree that there shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any employee for reason of membership or activity in the Union.
- (d) The Employer agrees to provide equal opportunity for employment of First Nations peoples, people with disabilities, visible minorities and any sexual orientation.

1.02 Complaints Investigation

An employee who complains of harassment may refer the complaint to either one or other of the following processes:

- (a) Where the complaint pertains to the conduct of an employee within the HEU bargaining unit it shall be referred to Ana Mohammed or Jean Greatbach (complaints investigators); or
- (b) Where the complaint pertains to the conduct of a person not in the HEU bargaining unit, it shall be referred to Gwen Brodsky or Jean Greatbach (complaints investigators).
- (c) All persons involved with the complaint shall hold all aspects of the complaint and all related information in the strictest confidence.
- (d) Both the complainant and the alleged harasser shall be entitled to Union representation if they are members of the bargaining unit.

When a complaint is received under either (a) or (b) above, the appropriate complaint investigator shall:

- a) investigate the complaint;
- b) determine the nature of the complaint; and,
- c) make written recommendations to resolve the complaint.

1.03 Respectful Conduct in the Workplace

Individuals are responsible for conducting themselves in a respectful manner in the workplace and at work-related gatherings. Failure to maintain respectful conduct will lead to discipline up to and including termination of employment.

A respectful workplace is characterized by:

- (a) Polite behavior – defined as courteous and considerate behavior toward others.
- (b) Inclusion – of people with different backgrounds, cultures, strengths and opinions.
- (c) Safety – from disrespectful, discriminating, bullying and harassing behaviour.
- (d) Protection against harassment extends to incidents occurring at or away from the workplace, during or outside working hours, and includes incidents related to client, resident, or visitor contact, provided the acts are committed within the course of the employment relationship.
- (e) Support – individuals will be supported to learn and practice personal dispute resolution and respectful workplace skills.
- (f) Dispute resolutions processes – differences will be managed through dispute resolution processes, including but not limited to Articles 1.02, 8 and 9 of this agreement.

1.04 Workplace Bullying

Bullying for the purpose of this article is any repeated or systematic behaviour which may be either physical, verbal or psychological including shunning, which would be seen by a reasonable person as intending to belittle, intimidate, coerce or isolate another person.

Personal harassment and/or bullying does not include acceptable social banter in the workplace. Nor does it include actions occasioned through the exercise in good faith of management's rights for bona fide operational requirements or progressive corrective discipline in a manner that is respectful of those involved.

1.05 Inclusion

Nothing in the above definitions or any application thereof is intended to reduce, restrict or fetter the Employer's right and ability to manage and or discipline its employees.

ARTICLE 2 - RECOGNITION OF THE UNION

2.01 Sole Bargaining Agency

The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole bargaining agency on behalf of the employees for whom the Union has been certified as bargaining agent with respect to wages, hours of work, terms and conditions of employment during the life of this agreement.

In furtherance of the above, the Employer shall provide, at no cost to the Union, an on-site filing cabinet with lock and keys for the sole use of the Union. Upon request by a Union officer, the Employer will provide a private place to meet with members and to make telephone calls.

2.02 Union Shop

Employees who are brought within the jurisdiction of the Union's Certificate of Bargaining Authority, including newly hired employees, shall become members of the Union by the first day of the third bi-weekly pay period after their initial date of employment in the bargaining unit.

Upon receipt by the Employer of written advice from the Union, employees who fail to maintain membership in the Union or the check-off of Union dues, or an amount equal to Union dues, shall be terminated by the Employer from their employment.

Where the Employer has knowledge of an employee failing to maintain Union membership or the check-off of Union dues, the Employer shall so advise the Union, and in turn, the Union shall advise the employee in writing. When the Employer is advised by the Union of non-compliance of either of the above, the Employer shall terminate the services of the employee within thirty (30) days of written advice as noted above.

In the event an employee is terminated pursuant to this section, the following contract provisions shall not be applicable to the employee:

2.03 Union Check-Off

The Employer agrees to the monthly check-off of all Union dues, assessments, initiation fees, and written assignments of amounts equal to Union dues.

The check-off monies deducted in accordance with the above paragraph shall be remitted to the Union by the Employer in a period not to exceed twenty-one (21) days after the date of deduction.

The Employer shall provide the Union's Provincial Office with a list of all employees hired and all employees who have left the employ of the Employer (who shall be designated as terminated and shall include discharges, resignations, retirements and deaths) in the previous month, along with a list of all employees in the bargaining unit and their employee status, and the amount of dues or equivalent monies currently being deducted for each employee. Such information shall be provided in an electronic format, such as Microsoft Excel to: memberupdates@heu.org.

The Employer agrees to sign into the Union all new employees whose jobs are covered by the Certificate of Bargaining Authority in accordance with the provisions of Article 2.02.

The Employer shall supply each employee without charge, a receipt in a form acceptable to Revenue Canada for income tax purposes, which receipt shall record the amount of all deductions paid to the Union by employees during a taxation year. The receipts shall be mailed or delivered to employees prior to March 1st of the year following each taxation year.

Twice every calendar year in January and July, the Employer shall provide to both the secretary-treasurer of the local and the secretary-business manager of the Union, a list of all employees in the bargaining unit, their job titles, their addresses, their personal emails, and their telephone numbers known to the Employer. Such information shall be provided in an electronic format, such as Microsoft Excel to: memberupdates@heu.org.

2.04 Induction

The secretary-treasurer shall be advised of the date, time and place of Employer induction sessions for new employees in order that a Union-designated representative shall be given an opportunity to talk to the new employees. Prior to each session, the Employer shall advise the secretary-treasurer of the names of the new employees hired.

Induction sessions for new employees shall be held at the Employer's place of business within the first thirty (30) calendar days of employment, any day between Monday and Friday at a time designated by the Employer between the hours of 0900 and 1700.

There shall be no deduction of wages or fringe benefits because of time spent by the Union representative during these sessions.

New employees shall receive regular wages while attending at these sessions, but regular wages shall be limited to and shall not include any overtime even in cases in which the session is scheduled outside of and in addition to the scheduled work of the employees.

2.05 Shop Stewards

The Employer agrees to the operation of a shop steward system which shall be governed by the following:

- (a) Shop stewards may be appointed by the Union on the basis of four (4) shop stewards plus alternates.
- (b) The Employer is to be kept advised of all shop steward appointments.
- (c) One (1) shop steward or Union committee member shall be appointed by the Union as chief shop steward, who may present or assist in the presentation of any grievance.
- (d) When the absence of more than one (1) shop steward or Union committee member shall interfere with the proper operation of a department, then no more than one (1) shop steward or Union committee member from any one department shall be given leave of absence to transact Union business at any one time.
- (e) When a shop steward or Union committee member is the only employee on duty in a department, and where their absence would unduly interfere with the proper operation of the department, then such shop steward or Union committee member may be refused leave of absence to transact Union business.

ARTICLE 3 - DEFINITIONS

Practical Nurse

A practical nurse shall be recognized as one who is in possession of a diploma from a recognized practical nurse school and/or holds a valid British Columbia practical nurse license.

Common-Law Spouse

Two people who have cohabited as spousal partners for a period of not less than one (1) year.

This definition shall apply to the following sections of the agreement:

- Article 37 – Dental and Extended Health Care Plan
- Article 37.02 – BC Medical Services Plan

Continuous Service – Article 29.01 Vacation Entitlement

Years of employment with the Employer (not related to an employee's status).

ARTICLE 4 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

The management of the Employer's business and the direction of the working forces including the hiring, firing, promotion and demotion of employees, is vested exclusively in the Employer, except as may be otherwise specifically provided in this agreement.

The Union agrees that all employees shall be governed by all rules as adopted by the Employer and published to employees on bulletin or notice boards, or by general distribution, provided such rules are not in conflict with this agreement.

ARTICLE 5 - UNUSUAL JOB REQUIREMENTS OF SHORT DURATION

The nature of health care is such that at times it is necessary for employees to perform work or working in areas within the residence not normally required in their job, and therefore, the requirements of the moment shall determine the type of work to be performed. It is understood that an employee shall not be expected to perform a task for which they are not adequately trained.

ARTICLE 6 - LEGAL PICKET LINE

Refusal to cross or to work behind a picket line shall not constitute cause for discipline or dismissal. An employee who refuses to cross or work behind a picket line shall be considered to be absent without pay.

ARTICLE 7 - UNION / EMPLOYER COMMITTEES

7.01 Labour Management Meetings

The Union and the Employer are committed to a process of working together with the common goals of anticipating and resolving mutual problems. To this end, the parties shall as occasion warrants, meet for the purpose of discussing and negotiating a speedy settlement of any grievance or dispute arising between the Employer and the employee(s). Such meetings may be made at the request of either party and may discuss other issues relating to the workplace that includes but is not limited to:

- a) Reviewing matters related to the maintenance of good relations between the parties;
- b) Working collaboratively to correct situations which cause misunderstanding;
- c) Dealing with matters referred to in this agreement.

ARTICLE 8 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

8.01 Union Representation

No shop steward, Union committee member, or employee shall leave their work without advising their immediate supervisor. Employee-shop steward or Union committee member discussions shall take place where resident care is not affected.

Shop stewards or Union committee members shall be permitted to represent an employee's interest without loss of pay when such meetings are scheduled during the shop steward's or Union committee member's hours of work.

Where the Employer intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the Employer shall notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact a shop steward. Employees have the right to select the shop steward they wish to represent them, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the interview.

8.02 Grievance Investigations

Where an employee has asked or is obliged to be represented by the Union in relation to the presentation of a grievance, and a shop steward or Union committee member wishes to discuss the grievance with that employee, the employee and the shop steward or Union committee member shall be given reasonable time off without loss of pay for this purpose when the discussion takes place at the Employer's place of business.

No meeting shall take place between the Employer and a Union member where any form of discipline could possibly result from the meeting, without the Employer specifically advising the Union member that they have the right to representation by a shop steward or Union committee member of their choice. Where the Employer fails to so advise the member, any disciplinary action taken shall be rendered null and void.

No meeting shall take place between the Employer and a Union member without reasonable advance notice being given to the member.

8.03 Right to Grieve Disciplinary Action

Disciplinary action grievable by the employee shall include written censures, letters of reprimand, and adverse reports or performance evaluation. An employee shall be given a copy of any such document placed on the employee's file which might be the basis of disciplinary action. Should an employee dispute any such entry in their file, they shall be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure, and the eventual resolution thereof shall become part of their personnel record. Any such document other than official evaluation reports shall be removed from the employee's file after the expiration of eighteen (18) months from the date it was issued, providing no further discipline related to the specific issue has occurred. The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in any hearing, any document from the file of an employee, the existence of which the employee was not aware at the time of filing or within a reasonable period thereafter.

8.04 Grievance Procedure

If an employee has a grievance, their grievance shall be settled as follows:

Step 1

The employee with or without a shop steward or Union committee member (at the employee's option), shall first discuss the grievance with their immediate supervisor or department head within seven (7) calendar days of the occurrence of the grievance. If the grievance is not settled at this step; then

Step 2

The grievance shall be reduced to writing, signed by the employee and a shop steward or Union committee member, and shall be presented to the immediate supervisor or the department head by a shop steward or a Union committee member who shall discuss the grievance. Within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the written grievance, the supervisor or the department head shall give their written reply unless otherwise mutually agreed. If the grievance is not settled at this step; then

The Union committee and the committee on labour relations or its delegate shall meet within twenty-one (21) days or other mutually agreed to time to discuss the grievance. At this step of the grievance procedure, each party shall provide to the other a statement of facts and copies of all relevant documents. The findings or decisions of the committee on labour relations shall be presented to the Union in writing within seven (7) calendar days of the meeting. If the grievance is not settled at this step, either party may refer the grievance to arbitration under Article 9 within thirty (30) days.

The Employer agrees that their representatives at the step 3 meeting have the authority to resolve the grievance.

8.05 Dismissal/Suspension for Alleged Cause

Employees dismissed or suspended for alleged cause shall have the right within seven (7) calendar days after the date of dismissal or suspension to initiate a grievance at step 3 of the grievance procedure.

8.06 Reinstatement of Employees

If prior to the constitution of an arbitration board pursuant to Article 9 it is found that an employee was laid off, disciplined or dismissed without just and reasonable cause, that employee shall be reinstated by the Employer without loss of pay with all of their rights, benefits and privileges, which they would have enjoyed if the lay-off, discipline or discharge had not taken place.

8.07 Industry Troubleshooter

Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee, or to the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable during the term of the Collective Agreement:

- Amanda Rogers
- Cathy Knapp
- Chris Sullivan
- Corinn Bell
- Julie Nichols
- Ken Saunders
- Vince Reddy
- or a substitute agreed to by the parties,

shall at the request of either party:

- a) investigate the difference;
- b) define the issue in the difference; and
- c) make written recommendations to resolve the difference within five (5) days of the date of receipt of the request, and for those five (5) days from that date, time does not run in respect of the grievance procedure.

In the event the parties are unable to agree on an industry troubleshooter within a period of thirty (30) days from the date this Collective Agreement is awarded, either party may apply to the Minister of Labour for the Province of British Columbia to appoint such person.

8.08 Expedited Arbitrations

- (a) Those grievances agreed to be suitable for expedited arbitration shall be scheduled to be heard. Expedited arbitration dates shall be agreed to by the parties and shall be scheduled as agreed to by the parties.
- (b) The location of the hearing is to be agreed to by the parties but will be at a location central to the geographic area in which the dispute arose.
- (c) As the process is intended to be non-legal, lawyers will not be used to represent either party.

- (d) All presentations are to be short and concise and are to include a comprehensive opening statement. The parties agree to make limited use of authorities during their presentations.
- (e) Prior to rendering a decision, the arbitrator may assist the parties in mediating a resolution to the grievance.
- (f) Where mediation fails or is not appropriate, a decision shall be rendered as contemplated herein.
- (g) The decision of the arbitrator is to be completed and emailed to the parties within three (3) working days of the hearing.
- (h) All decisions of the arbitrators are to be limited in application to that particular dispute and are without prejudice. These decisions shall have no precedential value and shall not be referred to by either party in any subsequent proceeding.
- (i) All settlements of proposed expedited arbitration cases made prior to hearing shall be without prejudice.
- (j) The parties shall equally share the costs of the fees and expenses of the arbitrator.
- (k) The expedited arbitrators who shall act as sole arbitrators, shall be:
 - Amanda Rogers
 - Cathy Knapp
 - Chris Sullivan
 - Corinn Bell
 - Julie Nichols
 - Ken Saunders
 - Vincy Reddy
 - or an alternative suitably registered with the B.C. Labour Board, mutually agreeable to the parties.
- (a) The expedited arbitrator shall have the same powers and authority as an arbitration board established under the provisions of Article 9 excepting Article 9.03.
- (b) It is understood that it is not the intention of either party to appeal a decision of an expedited arbitration proceeding.
- (c) Any suspension for alleged cause that is not dealt with under this section shall be referred immediately to Article 8.05 for resolution.

ARTICLE 9 - ARBITRATION

9.01

(a) Composition of Board

Should the committee on labour relations, the Union committee, and the secretary-business manager of the Union fail to settle any difference, grievance or dispute whatsoever arising between the Employer and the Union or the employees concerned, such difference, grievance or dispute, including any question as to whether any matter is arbitrable, but excluding renegotiation of the agreement shall, at the instance of either party, be referred to the arbitration, determination and award of an arbitration board of three (3) members. Such board shall be deemed to be a board of arbitration within the meaning of the Labour Code of British Columbia.

One member is to be appointed by the committee on labour relations, one by the Union, and the third who shall be the chairperson of the arbitration board by the two thus appointed, or failing such appointment within two (2) weeks after either party has given notice to the other requiring that such appointment be made, by appointment from the following list of arbitrators:

- Corinn Bell
- Julie Nichols
- Ken Saunders
- Chris Sullivan
- Vince Reddy
- Cathy Knapp
- Amanda Rogers

The parties, by mutual agreement, may amend the list of arbitrators at any time.

It is understood that the arbitrators shall be appointed on a rotating basis commencing with the first arbitrator named above.

The decision of the said arbitrators or any two of them made in writing in regard to any difference or differences shall be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union, and the employees concerned.

Where the arbitrator who is in line to hear a dismissal/suspension case under this clause advises the Union that their next available hearing date is more than two months away, the Union has the right to pursue the next arbitrator in the rotation, and so on, until an arbitrator becomes available who can provide an earlier hearing date.

(b) Dismissal/Suspension

If the dismissal or suspension of an employee for alleged cause is not settled at step 3 of the grievance procedure, such grievance shall be referred to the arbitration, determination and award of an arbitration board of one (1) member.

All employees that have been offered the shift will have visibility within the app to accept the shift until another employee that has been offered the shift accepts it.
 - iii. Where a vacancy is backfilling a vacation or leave of absence, the employee shall have 20 minutes to respond before the shift(s) is offered to the next
