Dear Sisters, Brothers and Friends:

Re: Getting Involved – March 6, 2018

HEU members are at the center of our union. Together we are continuously working to build a stronger, more diverse union where members feel confident and ready to fight for improved wages and working conditions, safer workplaces, and for social justice in our communities.

To support broader engagement by members in the union, HEU is launching Getting Involved, an exciting new workshop for members who are considering getting active in the union or in union-supported campaigns.

The first workshop will be offered on Tuesday, March 6, 2018 at the HEU Provincial Office, 5000 N Fraser Way, Burnaby, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Several more workshops will be scheduled in regions around the province later in the year.

In the Getting Involved workshop members will:

- Deepen their understanding of how workers' rights are won and how we fight for and protect those rights
- Explore how activists' interests, strengths and passions create pathways to getting involved in the union and social justice movements.
- Increase their awareness of HEU's history as a fighting union

Interested members should return their applications to the Provincial Office Attention: Jamie Cruz, Education Department by 5 p.m., February 1, 2018. Please return only ONE copy of the application – either by fax or mail.

Depending on the total number of applicants, there may be a selection process. We will be contacting applicants by telephone or mail once the selection process has finished.

In solidarity,

Jennifer Whiteside
Secretary-Business Manager
