Dear Sisters, Brothers and Friends:

Re: Human Rights and the Duty to Accommodate Workshop
May and June 2020

In the HEU, stewards often become aware of members who need an accommodation. In order to improve the ability of our stewards to support members and direct them to the appropriate resources, HEU is offering Human Rights and the Duty to Accommodate workshop. This is a valuable workshop for members who want a deeper knowledge of human rights legislation and how it relates to the duty to accommodate.

This two-day workshop will be offered over the following dates and locations:

- May 20 and 21 – Victoria
- June 9 and 10 – Lower Mainland
- June 24 and 25 – Kamloops

In the Human Rights and Duty to Accommodate workshop members will:

- Build their knowledge of human rights principles and BC Human Rights Code
- Learn about the duty to accommodate process
- Learn about resources available for members who require an accommodation

Interested members should return their applications to the Provincial Office Attention: Sonia Paone, Education and Human Rights Department by Thursday, April 16, 2020 for Victoria, by Monday, May 11, 2020 for the Lower Mainland, and by Wednesday, May 20 for Kamloops. Please return only ONE copy of the application – either by fax or mail.

Depending on the total number of applicants, there may be a selection process. We will contact applicants by telephone or mail once the selection process has finished.

In solidarity,

Jennifer Whiteside
Secretary-Business Manager
