Bargaining committee begins contract negotiations with Nisga'a Health Authority

Bargaining bulletin for HEU members employed by the Nisga'a Health Authority

The HEU bargaining committee met with the employer on June 3 and June 4 for the first days of collective agreement negotiations.

Both parties' proposals focused on issues around benefits, as well as collective agreement language. The issue of wages was not discussed at this initial meeting.

Upcoming bargaining dates are expected to be in September. Members will be notified once the dates are finalized.

The collective agreement between HEU members and the Nisga'a Health Authority expired on March 31, 2008.

Bargaining committee members are Elaine Moore, Florence Nisyok, Heather Stevens and Ashish Ria.
