

The following organizations have been certified as Living Wage Employers by the Metro Vancouver Living Wage for Families Campaign:

Atira Women's Resource Society

Atira Women's Resource Society is a community-based organization that supports all women, and their children, who are experiencing the impact of violence committed against them and/or their children.

Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives - BC Office

The Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives is an independent, non-partisan research institute concerned with issues of social, economic and environmental justice. The BC office was opened in 1997.

Seth Klein, Director of the CCPA-BC Office with First Call's Adrienne Montani

CCEC Credit Union

CCEC is a Credit Union based on Commercial Drive that aims to not only meet the financial needs of members but also to enhance the capacity of the non-profit, co-operative and small business sector of the local community.

Check Your Head

Check Your Head is a youth-driven organization that provides education for young people on the issues such as democracy, corporate power, globalization, climate change and many more issues that matter most to youth and our communities locally and globally.

CoDevelopment Canada

CoDev is a BC-based non-profit agency that works for social change and global education in the Americas. Co Dev founded Café ético, in 1996, which currently Canada's only unionized coffee distributor.

Community Savings Credit Union \(CSCU\)

CSCU is a full-service credit union that was founded with the goal of serving hardworking British Columbians. As a co-operative financial institution, CSCU is now BC's 18th largest credit union with assets totaling over $361 million. In addition to the head office, the credit union has 6 branches located in Metro Vancouver and Victoria. See what they have to say about being a Living Wage Employer on their web site.

Bruce Cook, President and CEO of CSCU and Living Wage for Families Organizer Michael McCarthy Flynn

Eclipse Awards

Eclipse Awards is the leading supplier of recognition awards to the corporate market. It specializes in high quality glass and crystal recognition awards as well as green awards. See what they have to say about being a Living Wage Employer on their Blog.

Toby Barazzuol, founder of Eclipse Awards with Living Wage for Families Organizer, Michael McCarthy Flynn

Greenomics

Greenomics provides educational and consulting services to businesses and organizations wanting to reap the benefits from the Business of Sustainability. They work with business and organizational leaders to increase their overall sustainability performance as measured through savings, revenues, and employee productivity.

Pacific Community Resources Society \(PCRS\)

PCRS is an award winning, accredited, not-for-profit society serving Lower Mainland communities since 1984. It provides alternate education, employment, addiction counseling and prevention services, housing search support, and cultural enrichment for children, youth, adults and families.

Raised Eyebrow Web Studio Inc

Raised Eyebrow specializes in helping the not for profit, government and progressive business sectors develop and refine their online presence.

Raised Eyebrow staff

Renewal2 Investment Fund

Renewal2 Investment Fund is a social venture fund that has built upon 15 years of experience in successful high-impact investing. Renewal 2 raises capital for the development of under funded sectors that are critical to a sustainable economy

The Columbia Institute

The Columbia Institute is a national charitable organization that aims to foster inclusive, sustainable communities by supporting individual and organizational leadership, developing cutting-edge research on emerging issues and building capacity in communities through our scholarship program and selected community capacity grants.

Columbia Institute ED, Charley Beresford, signs up to become a Living Wage Employer

West Coast Legal Education and Action Fund

West Coast LEAF was formed when the equality guarantees of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms came into force. Its mission is to achieve equality by changing historic patterns of systemic discrimination against women through BC-based equality rights litigation, law reform and public legal education. See what they have to say about being a Living Wage Employer on their web site.