

April 28th

Checklist

Ten ways CUPE members, locals, divisions and councils can take action:

- Plan your Workers' Day of Mourning activities well in advance of April 28th.
- Put up the Day of Mourning poster.
- Distribute the April 28th bookmarks.
- Wear the CUPE April 28th T-shirt to work.
- Use the CUPE Day of Mourning flag.
- Read the Day of Mourning Statement at a gathering or meeting.
- Invite community and religious organizations to participate in April 28th events.
- Involve the news media or contact CUPE Communications for help.
- Tell CUPE's National Health and Safety Branch what you did on April 28th.
- E-mail photos of your Day of Mourning event to cupehs@cupe.ca
