Strike vote meetings now underway in Community Social Services

Telephone town hall meeting for CSS members June 19

HEU members working in Community Social Services are continuing to participate at multi-union information and strike vote meetings (see schedule below) currently being held across the province.

And on June 19, CSS members from all unions in the Community Social Services Bargaining Association (CSSBA) are invited to participate in a telephone hall, beginning at 7:00 p.m.

How to participate

Members will receive a phone invitation at your home phone number about two days in advance.

Then, at about 7:00 p.m. on June 19, your phone will ring. If you wish to participate, just pick up the phone and stay on the line.

You will be able to listen to a presentation on bargaining, and have opportunities to ask questions of the town hall host. Experts will be on the line to address your questions.

If your phone does not ring, or if you are disconnected, email <contract@hsabc.org> for immediate assistance to rejoin the call.

CSSBA bargains on behalf of 15,000 community social services workers from across B.C., represented by ten unions.

Strike vote meetings are being held at the following locations and times. Members working at Cranbrook Society for Community Living, Windermere District Social Services (Mt. Nelson Place) and Amata Transition House (Quesnel) attended strike vote meetings between June 11 and June 14.
